- characteristics information (such as gender, age, ethnic group)
- contract information (such as start date, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)

In addition, we may process the following “special category information”:

- Relevant health or medical information (such as in respect of absences)
- Trade Union membership
- Race, ethnicity, or religious beliefs, sexual orientation

Why we collect and use workforce information

We use workforce data to:

- a) enable individuals to be paid
- b) enable safe recruitment and compliance with associated responsibilities
- c) enable and support performance management
- d) inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- e) enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- f) enable equalities monitoring and compliance with equalities duties

Our legal bases for processing workforce information:

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the legal basis / bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

- for the purposes of performance of a contract (e.g. contracts of employment, contracts for services etc)
- Where processing is necessary for compliance with legal obligations of the Governing Body (e.g. including but not limited to legal obligations under the Education Act 2002; Education Act 2005, the School Staffing Regulations 2009; the Employment Rights Act 1996, relevant tax law and other employment law obligations)

- Where processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or exercise of official authority vested in the Governing Body (e.g. education functions associated with running a school).

In addition, concerning any special category data:

- Where processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out obligations and exercising rights of the school or staff in the field of employment
- Where processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest (e.g. connected to the education functions associated with running a school)
- Where processing is necessary for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine (e.g. where occupational health advice is sought)

Collecting workforce information

We collect personal information via staff contract forms/application forms, ESS lite and other forms that staff may complete.

Workforce data is essential for the school's / local authority's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with UK GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing workforce information

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data, please refer to Clare Wilding, Data Protection Officer/School Business Manager.

Who we share workforce information with

We routinely share some workforce information with:

- The local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)

Why we share school workforce information

We do not share information about our workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education (DfE)

We are required to share information about our children and young people with the Department for Education (DfE) for the purpose of those data collections, under:

Examples for school workforce census:

We are required to share information about our school employees with our local authority under regulation 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (No 2) (England) Regulations 2007 (as amended).

Our Local Authority has a duty to provide the Department of Education with the information about our school employees under regulation 6 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (No 2) (England) Regulations 2007.

All data is transferred securely and held by the Department for Education (DfE) under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

For privacy information on the data the Department for Education (DfE) collects and uses, please see: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/privacy-information-education-providers-workforce-including-teachers>.

Data collection requirements

Requesting Access to your personal data

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact Clare Wilding, Data Protection Officer/School Business Manager.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- a right to seek redress, either through the ICO, or through the courts

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Contact

If you would like to discuss anything in this privacy notice, please contact: Clare Wilding, Data Protection Officer/School Business Manager.

Sharing by the Department for Education (DfE)

The Department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department for Education (DfE) will only share your personal data where it is lawful, secure and ethical to do so and has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether the Department for Education (DfE) releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of public benefit, proportionality, legal underpinning and strict information security standards.
