

Reading Round-Up

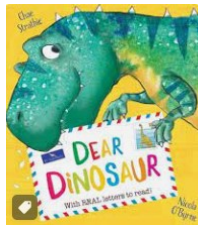

January 2024

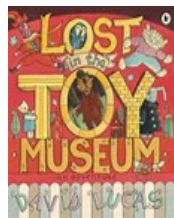

Happy New Year! I hope that you all had a lovely Christmas and New Year, gave and received lots of reading related presents and spent lots of time with people who are important to you. Look carefully through this newsletter for our 'Reading Raffle' updates and our new Junior Librarians!

What are we reading this half term?

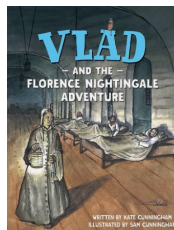

Year R

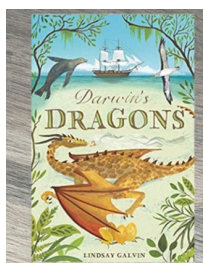

Year 1

Year 2

Year 3 and 4

Year 5 and 6

Ask your child to tell you about the story they have been learning about!

Guest Reader!

Mrs Spooner!

Mrs Spooner has two little people at home who she loves sharing books with. She's let me in on some of their favourites!

The Great Cheese Robbery

Who doesn't love cheese, mystery and a cheeky little mouse?

Mr Penguin
Alex T Smith

These seem like a very good introduction and adventure and action for younger readers.

Junior Librarians!

Meet our new Junior Librarians! Well done to everyone that applied!

Archer C, Amelia L, Elsie E, Aidan P, Samuel S, Abygail R.

Mrs Kingswell and I look forward to working with them and we can't wait to see what they get up to around school.

A very big congratulations to our first Reading Raffle winners!

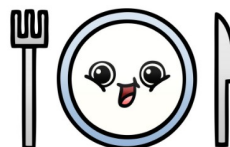

Each of our winners has chosen themselves a prize from our collection!

Don't forget to keep writing in your Reading Diary or on your book mark and popping your Reading Raffle tickets in the box in your classroom.

Tea Time Talk Time is live!

Thank you so much to everyone who is getting involved in Tea Time Talk Time. You can find Tea Time Talk Time on Google Classroom and on our parent Facebook. I've really enjoyed seeing and hearing about all the things that you have come up with. Keep them coming!

Poetry Corner

Spring Song

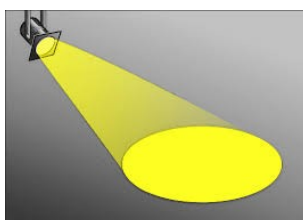

Author Unknown

Frogs croak
Rains soak
Chicks peep
Crickets leap
Bees hum
Robins come
Birds sing
It's spring!

Have fun reciting this rhyme.
